Continue on 301, though. When you get to Route 6 (which is where the Police Department and the Town Government is -- note the signs announcing the turnoff) turn left. PTP is about half a mile to your left. It is a very conspicuous building in its surroundings and you should find it easily. The other option is to take Maryland exit 2, which will put you on Route 210, going South towards Indian Head. Go about 10 miles South until you hit Route 228 -- a very conspicuous left-hand turnoff. Take 228 for about 7 miles until you hit the intersection of Route 301. This is also a very large intersection, with malls everywhere. Turn right and go down another 10 miles until you hit Route 6; then you can follow the directions above.

There are some nice restaurants in the immediate vicinity if you decide to dine before attending a performance.
